

Kelly Stricklin-Coutinho

MEDIATOR

London, United Kingdom | KSC@39essex.com

IAMC Level of Empanelment

Level 4 Mediator - Specialist Panel

Expertise

Diverse mediation experience includes:

- Banking & Financial Services
- Commercial
- Company
- Shareholder and Partnership
- Competition
- Energy
- Insurance
- Procurement, State Aid and Subsidy
- Sports & Entertainment
- Tax
- Transport

Kelly is a practising commercial and civil law Barrister at 39 Essex Chambers and a CEDR Accredited Mediator. She is a member of CEDR's Faculty and CEDR's UK Panel and the Platform to Business Panel of mediators, and a member of Sport Resolutions' Panel of Arbitrators and Mediators respectively. She mediates in all of her areas of practice, including co-mediation with tax authorities. Kelly is the Chair of the Civil Mediation Council (CMC). She was appointed by the Lord Chancellor to be a member of the Civil Procedure Rule Committee. As counsel, led by Edwin Glasgow KC, Kelly represented CMC, Ciarb and CEDR in the landmark Churchill v Merthyr Tydfil case.

Prior to her tenancy at 39 Essex Chambers, Kelly was a solicitor in a US headquartered law firm and in the legal firm of a Big 4 accounting practice. She was a trainee at the European Commission, a judicial assistant to the Court of Appeal and convened an LLM module at the University of London for several years. She is ranked in the Legal 500 and Chambers and Partners.

Profession

Barrister, Mediator, Arbitrator, Trainer

Current Occupation

Barrister at 39 Essex Chambers
Chair of the CMC

Languages Known

English