Profile Summary (Short Bio):

Narmadha is a certified Civil and Commercial Mediator and an emerging dispute resolution professional with a strong academic and leadership background in law. She holds multiple Master's qualifications, including an MBL (Master of Business Laws) and a Diploma as a Digital Dispute Resolution Specialist (DDRS), reflecting a solid foundation in legal reasoning and commercially informed decision-making.

She has demonstrated excellence through national-level mediation and advocacy competitions, alongside active engagement in arbitral simulations, developing a strong understanding of procedural frameworks and dispute resolution mechanisms. Her experience includes extensive legal research, structured drafting, and analytical case assessment across areas such as corporate governance, compliance and technology-related legal issues.

Narmadha brings a detail-oriented and disciplined approach to legal work, with a strong emphasis on neutrality, confidentiality and procedural efficiency qualities essential to supporting arbitral tribunals. She is particularly interested in institutional arbitration and seeks to contribute through effective case management, rigorous research and reliable administrative and legal support to arbitral proceedings.
